Good morning, Mr. Secker,

What I know is the database LA used to use...and from my understanding was not really a database - more of a share drive - is no longer available and all we (USMC) have pertaining to the LA office are the 90 or so boxes that were shipped to the Gray Center in Quantico.

I would suggest that you contact the person who sent those other pages to you and go from there. Meaning, close the case you sent to our office and re-send your FOIA request to OSD for that information since the only thing we have now are hard copy files.

Sincerely,

Karen Roth
